INVESTMENT OVERVIEW // CUBESMART SELF STORAGE // NEW BEDFORD, MA

Grandstone is excited to present CubeSmart Self Storage, a recently converted, premium facility situated in the thriving New Bedford, Massachusetts market. This property features 930 climate-controlled units across 91,908 net rentable square feet and is currently 52% occupied, providing a significant value-add opportunity. With a population of 133,899 residents within a 5-mile radius, the facility benefits from a 20-year solar lease that generates an annual net income of $57,000, with a 1.2% annual escalation. This investment offers substantial upside potential through high gross rental income, making it an exceptional opportunity for investors.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

· RECENT CONVERSION:

This early 20th-century building underwent a transformation in early 2020, now featuring 91,908 NRSF and offering 930 climate-controlled units.

PRIME LOCATION:

Located on Cove Street, which sees over 5,000 vehicles daily, and just off JFK Memorial Highway, boasting 25,000 vehicles per day. Furthermore, it is in close proximity to the Port of New Bedford, the largest commercial fishing port in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INCOME:

Featuring a 20-year solar lease that generates an annual net income of $57,000, this ancillary income stream includes a built-in annual escalation of 1.72%, ensuring consistent revenue growth throughout the lease term.

STRONG ECONOMIC DRIVERS:

New Bedford, MA, features a thriving maritime and fishing industry, anchored by its position as the nation's top commercial fishing port. The city is also seeing growth in renewable energy, particularly offshore wind projects, which are attracting significant investment. Additionally, New Bedford is experiencing increased residential development, with several mixed-use and multifamily projects underway. Its strategic location near major highways and deep-water port access further enhances its role as a hub for logistics and transportation.

WELCOME TO NEW BEDFORD, CAFFÈ NERO

New Bedford, Massachusetts, is a historic coastal city known for its strong connection to the fishing and maritime industries, which remain vital employment sources. As one of the country's busiest commercial fishing ports, it offers numerous jobs in fishing, processing, and marine services. The city has also diversified with growing sectors in manufacturing, healthcare, and renewable energy, especially offshore wind projects, creating a range of career opportunities. Additionally, New Bedford's cultural attractions and vibrant arts scene bolster the tourism and hospitality sectors, supporting local businesses and job growth.

ECONOMIC DRIVERS // CUBESMART SELF STORAGE // NEW BEDFORD, MA

In New Bedford, MA, several economic drivers contribute to the city's growth and development:

MANUFACTURING

New Bedford has a long-standing history in manufacturing, with companies producing textiles, specialized equipment, and precision components. This sector provides a wide range of jobs and has seen growth with initiatives to revitalize older industrial spaces, supporting both established businesses and startups.

HEALTHCAR SERVICES

The healthcare sector in New Bedford is a significant employer, with hospitals, clinics, and specialized care facilities offering jobs across various roles, from medical professionals to administrative staff. This sector continues to grow in response to an aging population and regional healthcare demands.

RENEWABLE ENERGY

New Bedford is positioning itself as a hub for offshore wind energy, leveraging its port facilities for staging and maintenance operations related to wind farms. The offshore wind industry promises substantial economic impact, creating jobs in construction, logistics, and environmental services while supporting long-term sustainable growth.

EDUCATION & WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

With institutions like Bristol Community College and vocational programs tailored to local industry needs, education plays a dual role in job creation and workforce training. These programs support local economic growth by preparing residents for careers in healthcare, maritime industries, and renewable energy, strengthening the local talent pool.

FISHING & MARITIME INDUSTRIES

New Bedford is one of the leading commercial fishing ports in the United States, generating substantial revenue and providing jobs in fishing, seafood processing, and related maritime services. The industry is essential to the city's identity and economy, supporting both direct and indirect employment.

TOURISM AND ARTS

The city's rich whaling history, vibrant arts scene, and cultural festivals attract visitors, contributing to the tourism and hospitality sectors. Museums, galleries, and historic sites provide both seasonal and year-round employment, while local events boost spending in hotels, restaurants, and shops.
